

2017 Pacific Swimming
Diversity & Inclusion Camp and Summit
Saturday, October 21st

This camp is for Leaders, Motivators, and those swimmers that want to Make a difference in their sport; changing the face of USA Swimming.

The goal of this camp is to create a culture of inclusion and opportunity to spread the mentality that elite level swimming can happen in any pool, by anyone, from any background.

This camp will include:

- Guest Speakers
- 3 Swim Sessions
- Team Building Activities
- Leadership Development
- Dryland Exercises
- USA Swimming give-aways for everyone

And more...

The camp will be held at:
Frank Fiscalini International Swim Center
at Independence High School
629 N Jackson Ave
San José, CA 95133

The campers must be 11 to 16 years of age. Campers will need to arrive promptly at 8:00 am and will be ready to be picked up at 5:00 pm.

Swimmers will need to bring: Suit, goggles, team cap if they would like to trade, a couple of towels, and shoe and clothes for Dryland exercise.

Applications are due Saturday, September 23, 2017. We will be accepting a maximum of 60 athletes to the camp. First come, first serve with priority given to first time attendees if we reach our maximum of 60.
