Zone 2 Order of Draw Procedure

Updated: June 19, 2000

1. Verification of recorded attendance by the Zone Representatives.
2. The Team with the best attendance record, (October – September) will be awarded Order of Draw # 1. The Order of Draw for teams that are tied for attendance will be established by random draw.
3. Only teams represented at the September Zone 2 meeting will be allow to participate in the first two rounds of bidding held that evening.
4. After each team represented at the September meeting has had the opportunity to bid for a meet, a second round of bids will be held starting again with the Order of Draw # 1 team. Additional rounds of bidding will be held at the October meeting, if necessary.
5. Meets selected at the September meeting must be bid as described in the approved zone meet schedule.
6. Meets not selected at the September meeting will be available for bid at the October meeting. Teams present at the September meeting will retain the same draw order as previously determined. Teams not present at the September meeting who wish to select a meet, will be assigned a draw order based upon their attendance record. The draw order will begin with the next available number after those determined at the September meeting.
7. Meets selected at the October meeting must be bid as described in the approved zone meet schedule until all teams pass on bidding for any further meets. Any meets not yet selected may be modified by the bidding club with the approval of the Representatives present at the October meeting.
8. Meets not selected at the October meeting are available on a first come basis by calling the Zone Chairman. These meets may be modified by the bidding club, subject to the approval by the Zone Representatives at the next scheduled zone meeting.
9. Changing meet formats and dates:
 - Teams hosting meets just prior to or just after (2 weeks) have veto power.
 - Any changes to awarded meets must be approved by the Zone Representatives at a zone meeting. Teams may elect to hold Friday evening events without special approval.
 - Teams needing to cancel a meet may do so by notifying the Zone Chairman. Such meets will become available on a first come basis by application to the Zone Chairman and subject to the approval of the Zone Representatives at the next schedule zone meeting. If the meet must be awarded before the next scheduled zone meeting (for example if the meet is scheduled within 60 days and the sanction process must begin immediately), the Zone Chairman can award the meet with the approval of the Zone Officers.
 - Meets shall only be added to the zone schedule by application to the Zone Chairman and subject to the conditions as stated above.
 - Exchange of meets that are comparable, by Zone teams may be made by approval of Zone representatives at a Zone meeting.
 - Dual meets are not subject to the above rules.
