

Zone 1 North Meeting
Monday, January 10th, 2022

Reports:

Laura – Chairman’s Report – Getting checks together for meet costs for Zones

Kayla – nothing to report – but make sure your registration is up to date when approving to be sanctioned so you don’t get held back by anything

Jonathan – look at email he sent in December about new MAAPP policies

Alec – nothing to report

Joey - Update your numbers for Zone meets on spreadsheets, if able to host dual venue in March email him

Kathy – Marin County (Z3) new rules over quarantining

Martin – nothing to report

Ainsley Jane – making sure current reps are active and getting more from each team, or just get involved, will sent out spreadsheet of which teams we are missing

Zone Information

- SUNN met with specific Zone members about they will run the meet, based on them being the typical hosts of meets at Fremont High
- SUNN will provide tents for timers, but if attending please consider donating a non-team tent for timers to use
- Breakdown of Zones: entry fees come in, Z1N cover all meet entry fees, whatever amount of income will be split with SUNN and Zone, SUNN takes care of all meet duties as well as meet director. Still a fundraiser for the zone, but offsets the lost CBA meet SUNN lost.

Old Business

- A motion to post last meetings minutes is passed
- Questions about camp at USPOC and waiver form for parents to sign, accepting risk if child goes
- Questions about Zone All Star Coach, who will be heading it up (Meet on 2/27?)
 - o Ben Chung (BAC) offers to help spearhead
 - o Need to put this in motion, to send it out to coaches
 - o Laura will work on draft and send it out
 - o Laura, Dave and Ben will take the lead on selection, planning and communication
- Motion is made to have ‘Volunteer of the Year’ award at Zones: Katherine!
- Larry will do other awards for Zones
- Nominations are closed

Meeting ends 8:55 PM
